CHRISTMAS PARDON.

Frank M. Fees Extended Executive Clemency—Reasons for Action Given.
Executive Office, Santa Fe, N. M.,
December 24, 1898.
Whereas, A custom has been established in this, the executive office of the territory of New Mexico, to extend to some unfortunate prisoner an act of clemency upon each national holiday, and
Whereas, Frank M. Fees was, at the May, A. D. 1895, term of the district court of the county of Colfax and territory of New Mexico, convicted of embezzlement and sentenced to the penitentiary at Santa Fe for a period of five years, and
Whereas, Strong petitions are on file in this, the executive office, asking that the said Frank M. Fees be extended clemency; such petitions setting forth the fact that the said Fees had been a citizen of Colfax county for many years, and prior to this trouble had always borne the reputation of being a hard working and law abiding citizen. There are also letters on file from the sheriff and ex-district attorney of the said county asking for the pardon of the said Fees, as well as from many prominent citizens of Colfax county. The superintendent of the territorial penitentiary joins in the request that executive clemency be extended to the said Fees;
Now, therefore, after a full investigation of this case, and in pursuance of the custom, as above, I, George H. Wallace, acting governor of the territory of New Mexico, do hereby extend to the said Frank M. Fees a full and complete pardon from the sentence and conviction hereinbefore recited, to take place on this, the 25th day of December, same being Christmas; and the superintendent of the territorial penitentiary is hereby authorized to discharge said Fees from confinement immediately upon receipt of a copy of this document duly signed and sealed.
Done at the executive office this 24th day of December, A. D. 1898.
Witness my hand and the great seal of the territory of New Mexico.
By the governor,
[Seal] GEO. H. WALLACE,
Acting Governor of Territory of New Mexico.
GEO. H. WALLACE,
Secretary of New Mexico.

Julian Ortiz, the Pojoaque merchant, is in the city on business and stops at the Exchange.
Robert Bauman and E. M. Bauman, of Delta, Colo., are stopping at the Claire hotel.
The legislature will be asked for an appropriation with which to exterminate pariah dogs in New Mexico.
F. L. Frazier, the Santa Fe-Bland freighter, reports that more supplies are now being shipped to the gold camp than ever before.
N. L. Spiesberger of Chicago is drumming the local merchants for ladies underwear and children's clothing. He stops at the Palace.
Marens Eldott reports that the work of closing out his stock is progressing nicely, and that the holiday trade is exceptionally good.
Conductor A. A. Rugg is punching tickets on the Santa Fe-Lamy run while A. H. West is spending the holidays with his family in Raton.
The members of the fire department will meet tonight, in Flanagan's hall between 7 and 8 o'clock to observe Christmas eve. Refreshments will be served.
Frank Becker, the popular Santa Cruz merchant, drove into Santa Fe yesterday afternoon to attend to business matters in the city. He returned this afternoon.
Agent Lutz, of the Wells Fargo Express, announces that the office will remain open tomorrow until 12 o'clock and that express will be delivered in the forenoon, as usual.
Jose Rafael, Rottas Mirabal and Miss Mirabal, of San Rafael, are stopping at the Exchange. They will spend Christmas with children relatives who are attending the Sisters of Loreto academy.
L. C. Thompson is officiating as clerk in the clothing store of J. H. Gerdies. Mr. Thompson is a Georgian and his pleasant manners and good looks will go a long way toward attracting custom to the Gerdies store.
Yesterday the thermometer at the local weather bureau registered as follows: Maximum temperature, 22 degrees, at 2:40 p. m.; minimum, 6 degrees, at 5:50 a. m. The mean temperature for the 24 hours was 14 degrees; mean daily relative humidity, 23 per cent.
Santa Fe Knights of Pythias are in receipt of invitations to attend a grand ball and banquet at Silver City Christmas. A special train will be run from Deming to Silver City and arrangements have been made to have a hot time. The Silver City Knights never do things by halves.
John Rock and A. R. Gibson of Cleveland, Ohio, guests at the Palace, left for a brief Denver trip this morning. They will return next week with a pocket full of money, prepared to invest in Santa Fe county schemes. As they will remain in the city a couple of months every one with schemes will have an opportunity to present them.
Professor Perez' band will render the following musical program in the plaza tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, the weather permitting:

F. Navarro Schottische—Beauty Bright.
H. P. Brother Galop—Raguet.
Vol. 1, No. 1, of Camp Churchman, a paper published weekly at Camp Churchman, Albany, Ga., and "edited by the soldiers," has been received at this office. The little sheet is filled with news items concerning the men in the camp and incidents of camp life. It is well printed and everything taken into consideration is a credit to the "soldier editors."

The New Mexican will gladly publish a list of all those who expect to receive callers on Monday after New Years, either formally or informally, and requests that during the coming week the names of those who expect to observe the New Year's holiday in the old fashioned way, will be handed in, that they may be published next Saturday.
Since Christmas and New Years fall upon Sunday this year, the Mondays following those days will be observed as the holidays in this city. Court will adjourn over until the following Tuesday, the bank will be closed on Monday, and the Government employees will not work on those days. The New Mexican, however, will not take any holidays and the paper will appear on Monday after Christmas and New Years as usual.
The pupils of St. Michael's college yesterday morning, beginning at 9 o'clock, gave their annual Christmas entertainment. The program consisted of music, vocal, orchestral and band, recitations and declamations, in which all the students in the institution took part. The entertainment was largely attended and those present thoroughly enjoyed the morning.
Attend the dance at Gray's hall tonight given by the Young Men's Literary and Debating society. You will surely enjoy it.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Mrs. C. L. Bishop leaves Monday for Albuquerque, where she will spend the holidays with friends.
George S. Blunt went to Albuquerque this afternoon to spend the holidays with his daughter, Mrs. Trimble.
Roy Crichton, of Monero, is in the city to spend Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Crichton.
Leo Hirsch and wife went up to Chama this morning for the purpose of spending the holidays with Mrs. Hirsch's relatives.
Mrs. J. D. Hughes, who spent three weeks in Los Angeles with relatives, returned home on the belated train yesterday morning.
Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Harroun arrived from Albuquerque last night. They will spend Christmas with Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Harroun.
Ex-Governor Prince returned last night from a trip to Cerrillos, where he attended to the assessment work on his mining properties.
Colonel R. E. Twitchell, of Las Vegas who has been in the city the past week attending court, left this afternoon for Silver City where he will attend to legal business next week.
Delegate-elect Perea and Hon. T. B. Catron are on their way home from Washington. They were in Chicago yesterday and left that city last night for Santa Fe.
Miss Maggie Fleming, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bishop for some time past, leaves Monday afternoon for Los Lunas to take charge of the mission school at that place.
R. J. Jessup, of the editorial force of The New Mexican, left this morning for Denver over the Denver & Rio Grande, to spend Christmas with his family in that city.
J. H. Gerdies has been in Cerrillos the past week looking after his business interests in that place, but will return tonight to spend Christmas at his home in this city.
Hon. Manuel R. Otero, register of the United States land office in this city, went to Albuquerque this afternoon, where he will spend Christmas with his son, John Q. Otero. He will return Monday night.
R. S. McBride, who has been attending the normal school in Las Vegas, passed through the city today en route to Espanola, where he will hang up his socks over the parental fireplace.
Tonight Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Kaune will entertain a party of little folks at their home with a Christmas tree. Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Diaz will also furnish a tree with good cheer for a number of the little ones.
J. F. Manning, the talented special correspondent of the New Mexican, who has been in the southern part of the territory for two weeks past, has returned to Santa Fe to spend Christmas. He expects to be in Gallup next week.
Wednesday afternoon Miss Caryl Pallen entertained in a charming manner a party of young ladies in honor of Miss Massie and Miss Kelly, and a delightful afternoon was passed by the guests. Those present were Misses Massie, Kelly, Staab, McKenzie, Hurt, Weir, Gable and Gulliford.
Justus Goebel, treasurer of the Stone Lake Ice Company, of Cincinnati, who has been in the city for a week, is so well pleased with the climate and surroundings that he will remain until next June. Mr. Goebel is here seeking rest from business cares and also for his health, and has taken rooms at the Palace hotel.
Miss Laura May, who has been attending school at the Academy of the Loreto, returned to her home in Albuquerque yesterday afternoon. Her many friends in this city will regret that she will not return. She has been the leading vocalist in the cathedral choir for three years past, and her voice will be missed by the worshippers there.
Last Wednesday evening, at Miss Gulliford's school, the pupils presented a series of tableaux from Dickens' Christmas carol to a large number of guests and friends. The first scene, between Scrooge and Marley's ghost, was admirably presented by Allan Fletcher and Will Prince. This was followed by the famous Fezziwig ball, the music being furnished by Will Prince's violin, the fiddler's by-play causing shouts of laughter. Sir Roger de Coverly was a sight to be remembered. The costumes used closely followed the text of Dickens and were all designed by Miss Gulliford to suit the characters impersonated. In the entertainment, which closed with "Tiny Tim's Toast," it was possible to introduce quite a number of pupils, who most intelligently interpreted the pantomime only, the text being read by their teacher. The finale was a statueque impersonation of the spirit of Christmas present. Those present among the guests were Secretary and Mrs. Wallace, Hon. and Mrs. L. B. Prince, Judge and Mrs. Laing, Captain and Mrs. Day, Rev. Father Gay, Mrs. Hefel, Mr. and Mrs. Burton, Mr. and Mrs. Lankard, Mr. and Mrs. M. Eldott, Mesdames Harroun, Carson, Kaune and Crichton, Messrs. Gusdorf, Easley, Howard and Newhall.

TERRITORIAL DISTRICT COURT.

Fine Imposed for Carrying Arms—Adjourned Until Tuesday—New Case Filed.

In the district court for Santa Fe county, this morning, Clemente Serafini, who is under indictment for carrying arms, and on yesterday pleaded not guilty to the charge, withdrew the plea of not guilty and was fined $50 and costs. He stands committed to jail until the full amount of the fine is paid. C. A. Spies of the territory.
The trial of the Sugar vs. Cunningham et al. trespass case was then resumed.

In the case of Territory vs. Nasario Alarid, purveyor, the court, upon motion of R. C. Gortner, today admitted the defendant to bail in the sum of $5,000. Evidence was taken tending to rebut the presumption of guilt of murder in the first degree, and showing extenuating circumstances of the homicide. Bond was immediately furnished by the defendant executed by Messrs. H. B. Cartwright, Fritz Muller, Antonio Ortiz y Salazar, Antonio J. Ortiz, of Galisteo, and Luis Tafuya and the defendant this afternoon was released from custody. There will be a pleasant Christmas for the family of the defendant, and especially for his mother, who has been very ill, largely by reason of her son's imprisonment. The case will be tried at the next term of court. Messrs. R. E. Twitchell and R. C. Gortner will appear for the defendant.
This evening the court adjourned until Tuesday morning.
In the Santa Fe district court the following case has been filed: Lee Muhlheisen vs. John W. Conway et al.; action to recover money due on notes. E. L. Bartlett for the plaintiff.
